HIGHLIGHTS of EASTER TERM 2017

Choral Compline

Compline is sung every other Wednesday evening at 9.30pm. On 3 May and 14 June it is followed by cocoa in J2. There will be Choral Compline with female voices on 17 May and male voices on 31 May.

The Searle Prize for reading in Chapel is open to undergraduates in their last year of residence and to graduates in any one year of their course. The winner and the runner-up will read at the Service for the Commemoration of Benefactors on 14 May. The competition will be held on the evening of Monday 8 May. Candidates will be required to read passages from the Authorised Version of the Bible.

Commemoration of Benefactors – Sunday 14 May, 6.00pm

This is the occasion when we reflect with gratitude on all the gifts received by the College. As the Master reads the list of Benefactors the continuity and development of the College is laid out. As we are all beneficiaries of this generosity, we should all try to attend, at least once, during our college career.

Ascension Tide – Friday 26 May, 6.00pm

A Sung Eucharist for the Feast of the Ascension; this is the Term's united service (Corporate Communion). All Christians in College are most warmly encouraged to come together for the Eucharist and supper party afterwards.

May Week Choral Evensong – Sunday 18 June, 6.15pm

To mark the end of Term and celebrate May Week, a final service of Choral Evensong to which College leavers are particularly invited. There will be free Formal Hall for leavers who come to the Chapel on that day.

University Gospel Choir Summer Gospel Music Concert – Friday 23 June, 7.00pm

For all Peace and Reflection during revision

After the College closes for exams the Chapel is a space of peace and quiet. We will provide resources for reflection and meditation in face of a stressful time.

Meditation Circle, Sunday evenings, 7.30-8.30pm

Held weekly in J2, guided meditation led by Harum Mukhayer. This is a secular breathing practice, and does not include any form of chanting, mantras or scripture.

Prayer Room

The Chapel Office is available as a quiet room for all faiths. If you wish to use it, please obtain the key from the porters.
