HIGHLIGHTS of MICHAELMAS TERM 2017

For the first two Sundays of term (8 & 15 October), a drop-in ‘Church Breakfast’ will be available in J2 from 10.45am to 11.30am for those attending morning services in the town or/and the Holy Communion in College.

Christians Together Tea Party. The Dean will be holding an informal tea party in J2 at 3.30pm on Saturday 7 October. This is particularly for Christians in College to get to know each other, and to discuss Chapel plans and involvement for this year.

The Matriculation Services
Tuesday 3 October, 6.30pm: preceding the Matriculation Dinner for first-year Undergraduates. Monday 9 October, 6.30pm: preceding the Matriculation Dinner for new Graduate students.

Joint Service with St Christopher’s Walworth (Pembroke House) – Sunday 8 October. Precise time depends on transport but this usually takes place around 1.00pm.

Music and Poetry to Remember WWI – Friday 10 November at 7.30pm, followed by Supper in the Old Library.

Remembrance Sunday – Sunday 12 November
The Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial is at 10.55am, followed by Sung Requiem Mass at 11.05 am.

Compline Services – alternate Wednesdays at 9.30pm, followed by refreshments. This is a quiet, candlelit evening service. 12 October, 26 October, 9 November and 23 November.

Advent Carol Service – Monday 27 November, 8.30pm.
Followed by madeira and mince pies.

Carol Service and supper at Pembroke House, Walworth, London SE17 – Saturday 3 December, 6.30pm. Sung by the Chapel Choir. Supporters welcome: contact the Dean for a seat on the coach.

On the cover:
The image is a pictorial poem (also known as 'carmen figuratum'), in which the lines of the text are arranged in a pattern showing the image of Christ set in red letters against a field of black type. This poem was published in Rabanus Maurus's work In praise of the Holy Cross and it intends to convey an emotional message by providing a holy figure the readers can meditate on. Different poetic texts can be derived from the various configurations of letterpress and woodcut. For example, the phrases contained within the image can be read on their own right or as part of the narrative in which they are embedded.
Collections at Evensong this Term

8 October Pembroke House
22 October Advocates Abroad SolidariTee
12 November The Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal (at 11.05am)

The Dean, the Revd Dr James Gardom, is happy to see any member of the College in J2, or at his home 17a Millington Road (338147, jtdg2@cam.ac.uk). As Dean and Chaplain he is there for anyone, of any faith or none, who wants to talk in confidence about problems, hopes or possibilities.

The Mailing List: College members can stay up to date with news and forthcoming events by joining the Dean’s Mailing List. Email jtdg2 to sign up without commitment.

The Chapel Choir is recruiting! The Choir leads an adventurous life, combining weekly chapel services with performances in a range of exciting locations. Our recent work has involved collaborations with Eric Idle, Gareth Malone and Tom Chaplin, recording sessions at Abbey Road Studios, and a two week tour to Zambia. In exchange for singing, Choir members receive free formal hall every Sunday and free singing lessons. Auditions will take place from 3-5th October, between 10am and 1pm. They can be booked at the Freshers’ Squash (2nd October 3pm-5pm in New Cellars), or by signing up here: https://beta.doodle.com/poll/7vb46c9amvi7tep If you have any further questions, you can email Anna Lapwood (Director of College Music) at arel2@cam.ac.uk. Alternatively, you can read more on the Pembroke music website: www.musicatpembroke.com.

The Chapel Clerks welcome enquiries from members of College willing to read or serve at the Holy Eucharist, or to read or act as wardens at Evensong. Contact them for further information.
