DAME IVY COMPTON-BURNETT PRIZE 2019

Entries are invited from any current Pembroke undergraduate or graduate student for the tenth Dame Ivy Compton-Burnett Prize. The Prize was established to encourage and reward creative writing, and in honour of the novelist Dame Ivy Compton-Burnett. Last year’s winner was Sarah Christensen.

The prize, of £400, will be awarded to the best original composition, in poetry, prose, or drama. The Judges will include an English Fellow and a writer or publisher outside Cambridge.

Entries, which may be up to 2,000 words in length, should be submitted anonymously either by email to sally.clowes@pem.cam.ac.uk, or as a hard copy to the Tutorial Office. Entrants should not include their name on their entry, but in a covering letter or email, along with the title of their work, to ensure anonymity. The winning entry will be published in the College Gazette.

Entries must be received in the Tutorial Office by 5.00 pm on Friday 26 April 2019.
