

Pembroke College

Peace & Faith Room

The Peace & Faith Room on the ground floor of N Entry is for everyone; a multifaith safe space for prayer, meditation, and quiet retreat. Welcome.

- Please remove your shoes upon entering the room.
- No candles, incense, or open flames of any kind, and no food or drink
- No leafleting.
- At busy times, please be sensitive to others who may be using the room. Please always be respectful of others' beliefs and devotional practices. The room is not bookable and can be used for personal prayer in any religious tradition, or for meditation, reflection, or just peace and quiet. It should usually be possible for more than one person to pray at the same time, even if praying in different faith traditions.
- Please keep the room tidy and accessible, and return the room to the same state (or cleaner) than when you found it. Rugs should be put away, and the dividing screen returned to an open position.
- The books and prayer rugs should remain in this room, on their labelled shelves.
- In general, this room is not for activities deemed 'external events', such as having a visiting speaker (non-college/University), or with significant numbers of people attending from outside of collegiate Cambridge. Any such use of this room for an external event must be approved by the college in advance and comply with the college's Events and Speakers Policy and Processes.
